Community Volunteer Day at the Greenfield Old Canteen Site

Groundwork are running a fun community garden day at Greenfield Old Canteen Site on School Lane , Green field, Holywell, on Thursday 15th April 2010 between 10 am – 4 pm . Everyone is welcome, young and old and no previous experience of gardening is required. On the day volunteers will be planting shrubs and plants to create a community garden. Light refreshments will be available

It is a great opportunity to get fit and learn about planting. just turn up on the day with suitable clothes and footwear for gardening . This project has been made possible thanks to funding from Flintshire Tidy Towns.

Note to Editor

Groundwork in North Wales is part of a federation of over 40 Groundwork Trusts in Wales, Northern Ireland and England. Each Trust is both a charity and a company limited by guarantee.

Groundwork's mission is to enable all citizens, whatever their backgrounds and circumstances, to improve the quality of their own lives, through engaging them in physical environmental activities and community dialogue. The essence of the Groundwork approach is local action, working in communities, with public, private and voluntary sector partners, to achieve practical improvements.

Groundwork in North Wales receives funding from Local Authorities, the Welsh Assembly Government and other public and private partners.
