

21st January 2010 Immediate

Connahs Quay Wetland Volunteer Day Friday 12th February 2010

10 am -2 pm

Groundwork and QuayCAT (Connah's Quay Community Action Team) are holding a community practical volunteer day on Friday 12th February between 10 am – 2 pm. During the day we are hoping to clear some of the site and create a shallow pond area.

Volunteers should meet near the entrance off The Parks Road at 10 am (Parking is unavailable here) or if later at the Connah's Quay Wetland Site (behind Ffordd Llanarth shopping precinct at the old Kwik-Save site) during the rest of the day .

Free refreshments will be available and volunteers should come suitably dressed for muddy conditions. For more information contact Alison Bedford at Groundwork on 01978 757524 or Lisa Fearn at QuayCAT on 07971832885.

Note to Editor

Groundwork in North Wales is part of a federation of over 40 Groundwork Trusts in Wales, Northern Ireland and England. Each Trust is both a charity and a company limited by guarantee.

Groundwork's mission is to enable all citizens, whatever their backgrounds and circumstances, to improve the quality of their own lives, through engaging them in physical environmental activities and community dialogue. The essence of the Groundwork approach is local action, working in communities, with public, private and voluntary sector partners, to achieve practical improvements.

Groundwork in North Wales receives funding from Wrexham County Borough Council, Flintshire County Council, the Welsh Assembly Government and other public and private partners.
