

Free Family Fun Day at Connah's Quay Wetland Nature Reserve
Tuesday 3rd August 10 am – 2 pm

Groundwork is holding a free family fun day at Connah's Quay Wetland nature reserve on Tuesday 3rd August between 10 am and 2 pm. The nature reserve can be found behind Morrison's supermarket off The Parks Road. The day is free and filled with great activities to stop children getting bored in the summer holidays. Activities include a scavenger hunt, face painting, bird quiz, making a wildlife mask and making bird feeders. This event is to promote the newly created nature reserve, and the day is completely free with lunch and drinks available. Access onto the wetlands nature reserve site has been made possible thanks to a grant from WAG and Tidy Towns managed by QuayCAT.

Activities will be run by fully trained CRB checked staff from Groundwork. All children attending must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Please wear suitable outdoor clothing and bring sun cream if necessary! For more information please contact Ally Bedford at Groundwork on 01978 757524.

Note to Editor

Groundwork in North Wales is part of a federation of over 40 Groundwork Trusts in Wales, Northern Ireland and England. Each Trust is both a charity and a company limited by guarantee.

Groundwork's mission is to enable all citizens, whatever their backgrounds and circumstances, to improve the quality of their own lives, through engaging them in physical environmental activities and community dialogue. The essence of the Groundwork approach is local action, working in communities, with public, private and voluntary sector partners, to achieve practical improvements.

Groundwork in North Wales receives funding from Local Authorities, the Welsh Assembly Government and other public and private partners.
